

FREE EVENT

APRIL 30

10 am - 5 pm

3570 DAVIESHIRE DR.

Come Explore YOUR Local history!

Speakers | Quilting | Food | Music | Historic House Tours | Ax-throwing!

Speakers' Schedule

- 10 a.m. Genealogy 101: Why, How, and the Benefits of Learning Your Past
Teresa Hill Mays, President, Afro-American Historical & Genealogical Society of Memphis
- 11 a.m. Legacy of the Trail of Tears in Memphis
Troy Wayne Poteete, Executive Director, Trail of Tears Association
- 12:15 p.m. Researching & Interpreting "Unseen" Local History
Brigette Janea Jones, Director of Equitable Partnerships, Belle Meade Historic Site
Andrew Ross, Executive Director, Davies Manor Historic Site
Aram Goudsouzian, Author & Associate Professor of History, University of Memphis
Charles McKinney, Author & Associate Professor of History, Rhodes College
Carroll Van West, Author & Tennessee State Historian
- 2:15 p.m. The Accidental Fame and Lack of Fortune of Davy Crockett
R. Scott Williams, Author & President and CEO, Discovery Park of America
- 3:15 p.m. Marcus Winchester: Reconsidering Memphis's First Mayor
Ginger Hadley, Descendant of Marcus Winchester

Sponsored by the Shelby County Historian and the Shelby County Historical Commission in partnership with the Davies Manor Association

For more info visit www.daviesmanor.org or call (901) 386-0715